

Network Team Institute Agenda

October 7-10, 2014

New York State Museum, 222 Madison Ave, Albany, NY

Day 1: Tuesday, October 7, 2014

Day 1 of 2: 3-8 ELA

Breakfast/Registration 7:30-8:30 AM	Network Team Institute Registration in the Museum Lobby Breakfast on the 4 th Floor Terrace
Opening Keynote 8:30-9:00 AM	Ken Wagner, NYSED Deputy Commissioner of Curriculum, Assessment, and Instructional Technology, in the Clark Auditorium (Simulcast in Huxley Theater)
NYSED session 9:00-10:00 AM	Senior Fellow Kate Gerson: ELA Resources on EngageNY, in the Clark Auditorium (Simulcast in Huxley Theater)
	3-8 ELA Principals Clark Lobby	3-8 ELA Coaches Student Center	3-5 ELA Teachers Clark Stage	6-8 ELA Teachers Meeting Room D
10:15 - 11:30 AM	Session 1: Determining Priorities from Data: Case Studies	Session 1: Determining Priorities from Data: Case Studies	Session 1: Determining Priorities from Data: Case Study Grades 3-5	Session 1: Determining Priorities from Data: Case Study Grades 6-8
11:30 AM – 12:00 PM	Session 2A: Part 1 – Analyzing a Standard and Connecting to Observation	Session 2A: Part 1 – Analyzing Priority Standards: What Needs to be Taught?	Session 2A: Part 1 – Analyzing Priority Standards: What Needs to be Taught?	Session 2A: Part 1 – Analyzing Priority Standards: What Needs to be Taught?
Lunch: 12:00 - 1:00 PM	Lunch provided on the 4th Floor Terrace
1:00 – 2:30 PM	Session 2B: Part 1 - Analyzing a Standard and Connecting to Observation	Session 2B: Part 2 – Analyzing Priority Standards: What Needs to be Taught?	Session 2B: Part 2 – Analyzing Priority Standards: What Needs to be Taught?	Session 2B: Part 2 -- Analyzing Priority Standards: What Needs to be Taught?
2:30 - 4:00 PM	Session 3: Observe Model Differentiated Lesson using ELA Coaching Tools	Session 3: Model Differentiated Lesson: Addressing Specific Standards While Maintaining Rigor for All	Session 3: Model Differentiated Lesson: Addressing Specific Standards While Maintaining Rigor for All	Session 3: Model Differentiated Lesson: Addressing Specific Standards While Maintaining Rigor for All
NYSED Session in Clark Auditorium
4:15 – 5:30 PM	Regents Research Fellow David Abel presents: DDI and Assessments in ELA Part III: From Data to Action
Dinner: 5:30-6:15 PM	Dinner provided on the 4th Floor Terrace

Network Team Institute Agenda

October 7-10, 2014

New York State Museum, 222 Madison Ave, Albany, NY

Day 1: Tuesday, October 7, 2014

Day 1 of 2: 9-12 ELA

Breakfast/Registration 7:30-8:30 AM	Network Team Institute Registration in the Museum Lobby Breakfast on the 4 th Floor Terrace
Opening Keynote 8:30-9:00 AM	Ken Wagner, NYSED Deputy Commissioner of Curriculum, Assessment, and Instructional Technology, in the Clark Auditorium (Simulcast in Huxley Theater)
NYSED session 9:00-10:00 AM	Senior Fellow Kate Gerson: ELA Resources on EngageNY, in the Clark Auditorium (Simulcast in Huxley Theater)
	9-12 ELA Principals Huxley	9-12 ELA Teachers & Coaches Meeting Room A & B
Morning Sessions 10:15 AM-12:00 PM	Session 1: Student Engagement in the ELA Classrooms	Session 1A: Laying the Foundation: Using the NY Curriculum Modules as a Foundation for CCSS-aligned Instruction
		Session 1B: Identifying Markers Of Success: What Does the Right Direction Look Like?
Lunch: 12:00-1:00 PM	Lunch provided on the 4th Floor Terrace
1:00-2:30 PM	Session 2: Standards, Instructional Moves and Student Engagement	Session 2: So, then, how do we get them there? Identifying The Instructional Moves that Support Skill Development
2:30-4:00 PM	Session 3: Identifying Elements of Change in the ELA Classroom	Session 3: Identifying Scaffolds That Support Skill Development
NYSED Session in Clark Auditorium
4:15 – 5:30 PM	Regents Research Fellow David Abel presents: DDI and Assessments in ELA Part III: From Data to Action
Dinner: 5:30-6:15 PM	Dinner provided on the 4th Floor Terrace	